

THE ABYSSINIAN PRINCE #369

February 15, 2016

E-MAIL/WEB ONLY ISSUE! PDF will be available on the website. We also are being reproduced in Eternal Sunshine.

Web Page Address: <http://www.diplom.org/Postal/Zines/TAP/index.html>

The Diplomacy tournament at TotalCon in Mansfield, MA February 19-21 is coming right up! It's not too late!! Y'all should come!!! The new Kendo Nagasaki game keeps going, I like running them and I also like playing in them... mostly. Plenty of time to join still. The two new games also are off to flying starts.

My health update is a bit of up and a bit of down. I've knocked back some significant side effects, but am still on chemo trying to stay ahead of any cancer comebacks. As they say these days, cancer is more and more of a chronic disease, my experience has still been much better than others with similar cancers. Our pal Mark Fassio is hanging in there with his greater issues than mine.

This issue continues the szine/subszine inversion. As most of you know, this thing began as a "subszine" to Terry Tallman's North Sealth, West George in NSWG #16, then became its own szine with a host of subszines. Since Terry's passing, we lose our thirty year fervent hope that someday NSWG would have been resurrected and I could go back and swear my fealty to the Toadfather. The subszines remaining will appear as sub-subszines to our flipfopped home in Doug Kent's Eternal Sunshine. I'm set on continuing my GMing, and I'm starting to write a bit, hope there might be more. Feel free to communicate with me about how you want to help or what you want to play, or if anyone else wants TAP subszine status.

For production, in addition to the HTML's of each separate product on the web page, I will also have a PDF that you can print of the entire subszine (including my famous handdrawn maps!). You can just print the maps if you like, but remember maps are for pikers anyway, you don't need no steenkin' maps, keep them up in your head where they belong.

The Diplom.org site has moved yet again. Chris Babcock and Mario Huys are still in charge. There were a few glitches and broken links, but things should be fixed now, if you have problems, let us know! But if you find you cannot access the website with the PDFs and HTMLs of all the past issues... well, please let me know and we'll fix it. The address is still: <http://diplom.org/>.

There are currently 75 members of the official TAP subscriber list, but that's down because in the move, there were some addresses dropped. <http://lists.asciiking.com/mailman/listinfo/tap> is the current list website. YOU need to make sure you're on this list. I'm trying to add some of the newer subscribers who aren't there. If you have questions or problems, PLEASE ask. There you can check your subscribing options and whether you're registered. Register if you want to get TAP E-Mailed regularly. Some people have had trouble with the attachments, so I have switched to sending the link in the announcements, we'll see if that helps. Please let me know.

THE ABYSSINIAN PRINCE FEATURES SECTION (CONS/LETTERS/MUSIC)

((For upcoming cons around the world: <http://www.diplom.org/Face/cons/index.php>, success, we have badgered all the Con directors to post their Cons, so it is reasonably up to date now. And there remains lots of interest in the FTF community, and linking E-Mail/Web players to FTF. Now is the time I'm ramping up the slight deviation adjustment in running my February Diplomacy tournament, leadoff to the Nor'Easter. Since TempleCon moved itself to August, great for them horrible for me, I've cut the tie of... what ten years running Diplomacy there? Robert Rousse and others had been hoping for some time that I'd move over to TotalCon, which actually has WAY more boardgamers and is a bit later in February, this year February 19-21, just up the road in Mansfield, MA, halfway between Providence and Boston. This also is a plus for our Boston gamers and for the Vermonters coming down it's closer too. You might still prefer to fly into Providence's airport, but as noted it's equidistant between there and Logan Airport in Boston. We can work out pickups and such. I still have two hotel rooms reserved down the street at the Red Roof Inn, that are pay what you want/can, as usual, with lots of space there still available for last minute deciders, <http://www.totalcon.com> has more particulars. Contact me for more details if you're coming. Also, the Facebook page for European Tournament Diplomacy, <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1500292310187264/>, Diplomacy in Europe, has been really active and the place to be in the hobby these days. If you're on Facebook, hook up there!))

NEW FEATURE: ROCK AND ROLL BANDS AND MOMENTS THAT MATTER

((If anyone from TAP or ES has ideas for more things to talk about here let me know. I do have four or five ideas lined up here already that I just have to write. I have been nudged... comments from any of you also are welcome.))

THE ABYSSINIAN PRINCE LETTERS SECTION

Did I miss any? I think "none this time".

THE ABYSSINIAN PRINCE GAMES SECTION

Standby lists: Brad Wilson, Jack McHugh, Drew James, Paul Rauterberg, Doug Kent, Paul Kenny, and Hugh Polley stand by for regular Diplomacy. Just let me know if you want on or off these lists.

GAME OPENING INFORMATION

I'd love to do another game of Spy Diplomacy, but it requires commitment that seems in short supply these days, but let me know if you want me to reprint the rules.

REGULAR DIPLOMACY: New game starts continue in this issue, with the new Regular Dip game. Is there something else we want to start?

BREAKING AWAY: New game starts with Turn 1 in THIS issue.

Game Notes:

1) Welcome to the new game start. My house rules appear most recently in Issue #343:

<http://diplom.org/Postal/Zines/TAP/TAP343.pdf>.

I need to say that my attitude toward house rules has evolved since being part of Thaddeus Black's current project to codify the rules for the game of Diplomacy. When that is done, I will do another version of my House Rules acknowledging this project, but for now, assume that when I refer to being held to "current standard hobby practice" it is represented by the evolving consensus of that project: Diplomacy Player's Technical Guide, 2nd Edition. You may feel free to communicate more about this to our Austrian player, who leads this project. Italicised moves fail of execution.

2) I tried to add everyone to the TAP mailing list, please join it with preferred settings and E-Mail address, see instructions on Page 1. Let me know if you have problems.

3) Write press for publication with results. It's fun. I know most people don't do much of it any more, but you will earn the eternal respect of the GM if you do.

4) According to TAP tradition, we offer an opportunity for a Press Only Summer 1901 season, but many of you may want to press on to Fall 1901, that's up to all of you.

5) Oh, and one last point for our "new TAP players", yes I adjudicate all games by hand and do the maps by hand. You do need to check me, but hand adjudication IS the only way to GM... ;-)

Press:

(GERMANY): Attack Germany, she will fight back, make neutral moves Germany will reply in kind, make pro-German moves and you have a friend.

(TEAM AUSTRIA–THE WORLD): “Who is for a mutual non-aggression pact? No barging, clashing of wheels or cutting each other up...”

Game Notes:

1) The rules are on the TAP website in the Tinamou section. Ask if you have any questions. Rules at: <http://www.diplom.org/Postal/Zines/TAP/Tinamou/rules/BreakingAway.htm>

Up above in parentheses is the card you played to get to where you are in the field. The replenishment card is the last card in your list. Be careful to note that the card you played (the one in parentheses) is not available for you, for next turn. Just for fun, I keep track of total replenishment, by turn, which is a rough measure of how the teams are doing. Of course, it is lining up to get across the sprint and final lines in the right places that really counts. We can calculate an “efficiency score” later, which will be the ratio of scoring points per replenishment.

2) We do have seven players. My intent it to play to the rules, with the overcrowding rule used only on the first turn. I recognize that some large replenishment cards after that are possible, but we’ll go with it and see how it plays.

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS KENDO NAGASAKI

DEADLINE FOR TURN 6 OF THE GAME IS MARCH 19, 2016 GET ORDERS IN OR THINK ABOUT JOINING IN AS WE CLOSE IN!!!

Kendo Nagasaki for me comes from the series in Eternal Sunshine... The full rules for Where in the World is Kendo Nagasaki are in: <http://www.whiningkentpigs.com/DW/es58.pdf>. Send a guess!!!

TURN 1

Brendan Whyte: Henry Mancini on Vostok Island, Pacific Ocean	Tom Howell: Kim Philby in London
Hank Alme: Bela Fleck in Oaxaca, Mexico	Marc Ellinger: Richard Nixon in Santiago, Chile
Peter Sullivan: Lewis Hamilton in Buenos Aires	Doug Kent: Julia Child in Santiago, Chile

HINT to the Person with the Closest Geographic Guess: You have identified my gender correctly, but I was born many centuries before you.

TURN 2

Brendan Whyte: Johann Sebastian Bach on Clipperton Island, Mexico	Tom Howell: Henry VIII of England in Turkistan, Kazakhstan
Hank Alme: Anthony Blunt in Cancun, Mexico	Marc Ellinger: Louis VII in Paris, France
Peter Sullivan: Julian of Norwich in Norwich, Ohio	Doug Kent: Galileo in Berlin, Germany

Rick Desper:
Stan Lee in Seoul, South Korea

Andy York:
Richard the Lionhearted in Vienna, Austria

HINT to the Person with the Closest Geographic Guess: One of my most famous quotes refers in both a direct and oblique way to your profession.

TURN 3

Brendan Whyte:
Jesus in Jerusalem

Tom Howell:
Thomas Cromwell in Helsinki, Finland

Hank Alme:
Guy Burgess in Moscow, Russia

Marc Ellinger:
William Shakespeare in Poitiers, France

Peter Sullivan:
King John I of England in Brussels, Belgium

Doug Kent:
Shakespeare in Veracruz, Mexico

Rick Desper:
Christopher Marlowe in Belize City, Belize

Andy York:
Copernicus in Lodz, Poland

HINT to the Person with the Closest Geographic Guess: We each had serious disputes with our respective Popes and the authority of the Catholic Church. (Yeah, that means Jesus is NOT aligned with the closest guess...)

TURN 4

Brendan Whyte:
Giordano Bruno saying Gday in Gdansk, Poland

Tom Howell:
Henry VIII in Birmingham, England

Hank Alme:
Guy Fawkes in St. Petersburg, Russia

Marc Ellinger:
Samuel Beckett in Copenhagen, Denmark

Peter Sullivan:
Martin Luther in Worms, Germany

Doug Kent:
Elizabeth I of England in The Hague, The Netherlands

Rick Desper:
Martin Luther in Luebeck, Germany

Andy York:
Machiavelli in Munich, Germany

HINT to the Person with the Closest Geographic Guess: While we both had disputes with the Catholic Church, we also had public disputes with each other within our overlapping lifetimes.

TURN 5

Brendan Whyte:
Ulrich Zwingli in Munster, Germany

Tom Howell:
John Calvin in Göttingen, Germany

Hank Alme:
Charles V in Wittenburg, Germany

Marc Ellinger:
Thomas Muntzer in Wittenberg, Germany

Note that Hank says Wittenburg and Marc says Wittenberg, these are two different places in Germany.

Peter Sullivan:
King Henry VIII of England in Heidelberg, Germany
Henry II in Stochholm, Sweden

Doug Kent:

Rick Desper:
No Guess Received

Andy York:
Johannes Agricola in Hannover, Germany

HINT to the Person with the Closest Geographic Guess: We agreed on a great many things, but you were much more of a rabble-rouser to the lesser educated classes, while I was more of an intellectual humanist.

LAST WORD: I sort of ran out of time again and space with only about four lines for the last word (or a whole page). Since I'm busy getting ready for TotalCon, I opted for the former. I have MUCH more to say about Terry Tallman, and it will come out in the next few issues as I have time. Hope everyone is having a good President's Day.
