Elections belong to the people. It is their decision. If they decide to turn their back on the fire and burn their behinds, then they will just have to sit on their blisters. Abraham Lincoln

In politics, an organized minority is a political majority. Jesse Jackson

The voice of the majority is no proof of justice. Johann von Schiller

April, 2005

Hopefully we are going to be getting back onto a more regular schedule now. Tax time and town meetings are done and we can get back to the important stuff.

March is the time that I participate in my annual reminder that true democracy is really being practiced somewhere. I live in a small town (under 5000 people). Our town business is still practiced the old fashion way, that is, we have town meetings. Day to day town business is overseen by three selectmen, elected for three year terms to unpaid positions. The schools are overseen by a five person board (I'm one of them), elected to three year unpaid positions. Every year at the town and school meetings, a budget is presented to the voters along with other warrant articles for any significant changes to the way the town or schools are run. Registered voters have the right to attend the meeting, speak, propose any amendments they want and vote on them. It takes all of 25 residents to put a proposal on the warrant, so citizen initiatives are easy and not uncommon. True democracy in action, a couple of hundred people gathered in the school gym debating do we need that new fire truck, should we buy the land behind the library to expand the parking lot, should we expand to a five person selectmen board? Everyone who wants to talk, then we raise our voting cards and make the decisions. I know that a modern nation can't be run as a true democracy, representation is necessary or nothing would ever be done, but I'm glad and proud that it still survives in some places and I get to participate in it. It's also a great civics lesson.

Continuing my existence in a little piece of Americana, we also attended a town contra-dance, geared especially towards the grade school children. It was a lot of fun, great to see kids as young as 4 out on the floor swapping partners with adults and having a blast. Then I took my 12 year old son up for his first practice with a local town band. The Temple Town Band is the oldest town band in the United States, established in 1799. Another fine small town tradition and it's great to see that the members span all the ages and that the tradition continues on.

CALL FOR STANDBY:

If anyone would like to take over a position in Persephone (regular diplomacy) please let me know as one of the players needs to resign due to time constraints.

Welcome to Tinamou #61, produced by Dave Partridge, 15 Woodland Drive, Brookline NH, 03033 (email: rebhuhn@rocketmail.com). Tinamou now appears on the web in conjunction with TAP. The web page has everything you'll find here including maps. Go to Jim's index page <http://www.diplom.org/DipPouch/Postal/Zines/TAP> and check it out, your comments and suggestions are welcome!

Deadline for all games: Monday, June 12

Gunboat with press: Five signed up so far.

Perestroika Diplomacy: Add an economic twist to the classic game. Centers generate revenue, armies and fleets must be maintained, and treasuries can be sacked! Rules are available on request.

Signed up: Art Schleinkofer, Harold Reynolds, Karl Schmit, Graham Wilson

Standard Diplomacy:

Game Opening: Standard Diplomacy

Signed up:

Just the results please: Don't really know what to call this one as I just came up with it. Perhaps it's been tried before. The twist for this variant is that each season only the ending unit positions are published, not the orders. You'll know who went where, but not who helped whom, or war may have been tried unsuccessfully.

Signed up: Doug Kent, Graham Wilson, Art Schleinkofer

Industrial Waste:

A new game for 3-4 players. Manage your factory and build your products, but beware, increased production means more waste, and if you aren't careful you'll find that working in a sludge pit affects your productivity and the bottom line.

With two games finishing, I'm opening up another.

Game Opening: Eric Brosius, Graham Wilson

Railway Rivals: Anyone have a favorite map they want?

Transcontinental USA: Richard Weiss variant. Richard's proposed rules are detailed in the Perdu game section of Tinamou 60. I've received at least one request for Richard to clarify his proposal, so I'm calling on him to try and formalize it a bit and then I'll put another write up here.

Outpost: Sign up for the next game to start when the current one finishes
Signed up: Eric Brosius

Snowball fighting: Current game is over. Anyone interested in another go? 4 signed up so far, Need a few more.

Golden Strider: It is to running what Breaking Away is to bike riding. See Tom's szine off-the-shelf at http://www. olympus.net/personal/thowell/o-t-s/index.html for some games in progress.

Signed up: Tom Howell, Dennis Menear

Catan: Settlers or Seafarers, player choice: Signed up: Brad Martin, Al Tabor, Andrew Glynn

Sopwith: (Next game once Snoopy finishes.)
Brendan Whyte

Reader's Choice: I'm open to anything, just send me the rules and if I think I can run it, I'll offer it

Press:

Woolies to Looie: Go ahead Jim, you take the points. We'll just hang back a tab bit longer.

GM to Woolies: Seems you've still got company back there.

MIKE: With all four of my riders out ahead in a line after three turns and nobody else even getting four points of cards for following them, I think I've lost the race already. Life is strange.

TONY STEWART: I see a finish line to cross, so I'm GOIN'!! Gonna WIN!! Might not have anything left for the second and third finish lines, but maybe my crew chief will come up with something that gets me going again. In the meantime, the crowd is roaring and it's for me.

MIKE to JIM:

GM – Mike: That's one of the more creative press items I've seen. Well said.

Spring 1903 Moves

Italy forces England out of the MAO, but England takes Brest anyway while the French fleet storms the shores of Clyde. German armies play bumper cars trying to move into France and force their way into Silesia, bouncing out the Austrians. Is Germany attacking Russia or coming to it's aid? It could use some help as Sev falls to the Turks and War is in danger. Austria docks her fleet and Italy sails into the Ionian.
